PRESS ADVISORY

The New Jersey Election Law Enforcement Commission (ELEC) has approved $163,398 in public matching funds for the 2017 gubernatorial primary campaigns of four candidates.

ELEC has certified $41,592[†] in public funds for the Republican primary campaign of Assemblyman Jack Ciattarelli. So far, he has received $692,588 in public funds.

ELEC also approved $61,810 for the Republican primary campaign of Lieutenant Governor Kimberly Guadagno. She has received $1,226,188 in public funds.

ELEC further approved $28,288 in public funds for the Democratic primary campaign of Jim Johnson. His cumulative receipts total $1,194,076.

ELEC has approved $31,348 in public funds for the Democratic primary campaign of Assemblyman John Wisniewski. He has received $694,358 to date.

Through today, $3.8 million has been distributed to all candidates for the primary election.

Under the Gubernatorial Public Financing program, which began in 1974, candidates who raise $430,000 or more can qualify for public matching funds. Primary candidates are eligible for up to $4 million in public funds. In exchange, other than a few exceptions, they must limit their total primary spending to $6.4 million.
